

REVEREND JOSHUA OLGURIS KERIKA BIOGRAPHY

Rev. Joshua Kerika is the Senior Pastor of Jesus Healing Sanctuary Ministries – Kimana (JHSM-K) and serves as the General Secretary of Jesus Healing Sanctuary Ministries (JHSM). He is a devoted servant of God committed to preaching the Gospel, mentoring leaders, and transforming communities through faith, compassion, and practical service.

Rev. Joshua Kerika was born in 1986 in Kajiado County, Loitokitok Sub-County, Olgulului Location, Kenya. He grew up in the Maasai community where he developed strong values of faith, leadership, and community responsibility that continue to shape his ministry today.

He is married to Pastor Purity Muteyian, a medical practitioner, who faithfully supports him in ministry. Together they are blessed with three children:

- Osteen Saidimu
- Keziah Natasha
- Praise Lemayian

Rev. Kerika's educational journey began at Namelok Primary School, after which he proceeded to Kimana Secondary School for his secondary education. After completing his secondary studies, he joined college where he pursued Logistics and Supply Management, equipping him with skills in management, organization, and administration.

Responding to his spiritual calling, Rev. Kerika later pursued theological training to strengthen his ministry leadership. He studied at Nairobi Pentecostal Bible College, where he obtained both a Certificate and a Diploma in Theology. He further advanced his theological studies at World Bible Institute, where he also earned a Diploma in Theology. He is currently pursuing a Degree in Theology to deepen his biblical knowledge and leadership capacity.

Before entering full-time ministry, Rev. Joshua Kerika gained significant professional experience working in community development and financial services. He began his career at Maasai Preservation Trust, where he served as a Community Liaison Officer, working closely with local communities on conservation and development initiatives.

He later worked with World Relief, initially serving as a volunteer and later rising to the position of Assistant County Coordinator, where he contributed to humanitarian and development programs aimed at improving the welfare of vulnerable communities.

Rev. Kerika subsequently joined Britam Insurance Company, where he began his career as a Financial Advisor. Due to his strong leadership and performance, he was later promoted to the position of Unit Manager, where he led and mentored teams in financial advisory services. Eventually, he made the decision to resign from his professional career in order to dedicate himself fully to pastoral ministry and the work of God.

In response to God's calling, Rev. Joshua Kerika founded Jesus Healing Sanctuary Ministries – Kimana on 8th June 2016. The church started with only three members meeting in a rented room at Nasinya Building in Kimana Town. Through prayer, perseverance, and visionary leadership, the ministry has grown steadily into a vibrant congregation with over 150 active members, three satellite branches (Lormeuti, Impiron, and Kalesirwa), and more than 21 active ministry departments.

Rev. Kerika was ordained into pastoral ministry in 2018, strengthening his role as a spiritual shepherd and leader. His ministry emphasizes prayer, evangelism, discipleship, leadership development, and community empowerment. His guiding philosophy in ministry is “Restoring Hope,” which focuses on bringing spiritual and social transformation to individuals, families, and communities.

In addition to his pastoral work, Rev. Kerika actively participates in interdenominational pastoral fellowships and community initiatives, working with other church leaders to promote unity in the body of Christ and encourage spiritual revival.

Through his leadership, Jesus Healing Sanctuary Ministries – Kimana continues to pursue a vision of building a spiritually vibrant church, developing strong Christian leaders, expanding evangelism outreach, and creating sustainable ministry infrastructure that impacts generations.

Rev. Joshua Kerika remains committed to serving God with humility, faith, and dedication, believing that the church must be both spiritually alive and socially transformative, bringing hope and restoration to communities for the glory of God.
